

Spiritual Money-n-the-Bank Report

Generations

1996 – 2021 Self-Declared Winners – Between 1996 and 2021, any American between ages 7 and 24 could qualify for entry in THE ANNUAL YOUTH ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS. 92 Americans qualified for this category of economic inclusion. Beginning in 2023, each existing “winner” can re-certify for inclusion by updating Money-n-the-Bank goals, completing the FDIC Financial Literacy requirement and contributing a minimum of one hour per week to one or more authorized program task forces.

A 2010 -2025 - In 2023, YouthUSA expanded entry to include applicants throughout the Global Village. Capacity building grants were approved for the development of six Generation Alpha applicants for inclusion from Sub-Saharan African nations. The program prioritizes youth in countries categorized by the United Nations as LDCs (Least Developed Countries). Generation Alpha youth applicants demonstrate economic leadership by engaging a “Whole Village” of caring adult stakeholders in economic capacity building.

Z 1997-2009 – A board review of assets and liabilities assessed a need for increased community engagement to sustain charitable operations. YouthUSA incubated a social enterprise to manage the 501c3 public charity and small trust clients. The company creates LEARN-2-EARN opportunities for learners of all ages to include Youth Achievers, veterans and historically disadvantaged social entrepreneurs. Certified trustees are needed to ensure accountability for inherited funds.

Y 1981 -1996 – The Community Asset Manager (CAM) is the local adult grantee held accountable for charitable funding from YouthUSA. Board members, community entrepreneurs, and ministry leaders have qualified for LEARN-2-EARN grant funding. The late Curtis T. Word, a 1997 Youth Achievers and elected director, was the first to test this contract opportunity. The funding does not compensate the CAM. It establishes equity while off-setting expenses for engaging Generation Alpha winners in supervised community service. Authorized fund-raising augments grant funding for LEARN-2-EARN expenses.

X 1965 – 1980 - Caring adults offer the benefit of their life experiences as advisors to a Generation Alpha Whole Village. The capacity building requirement for each Generation Alpha Beneficiary is 20 caring adults. The benefits earned as an ENGAGED caring adult advisor equals $50,000 USD, and is realized in small business equity and/or contract work opportunities.

Boomer 1946-1964 – The GRANDMENTORS’LIVING TRUST MODEL is established by Boomer Generation social entrepreneurs for the benefit of the youngest learners. Funding from a replicable reparations trust sustains nonprofit operations for Youth Achievers USA programs and those of qualifying nonprofit ministries. Any Boomer can invest as little as $10 each month toward the development of a FAS2 FAITH FAMILY TRUST. The BOOMER GRANTOR is the first beneficiary in the trust. This economic activity demonstrates internal reparations as celebrated in seven principals of the Kwanzaa Nguzo Saba.

Silent 1928-1945 - This Generation included beneficiaries of post-slavery wealth transfer. Learners referred to as the “talented tenth” achieved greater financial capacity during their temporal economies. Many of them have died and gone to glory, as their wealth continues to earn. A search for unclaimed funds may reveal hidden assets for living beneficiaries.

Greatest 1900 -1927 – Spiritual investment best characterizes wealth for this Generation. They valued faith in God and peace that surpasses logic as a spiritual asset for sustaining historically disadvantaged family members.

Lost 1880 – 1900 included Free Africans born into slavery in the United States of America and under European colonization in the African homeland. Among the measurable losses are some 3,000 indigenous languages, cultural values and family connections. An awareness of Stolen Peoples Equity among Generations X, Y, Z, and A may recover value to vision for No Poverty and World Peace.
